

6516207669.txt

Since XM Radio started providing weather and traffic for my area. I've gotten better and more accurate information on this service. It would figure that someone would want to limit my ability to receive information that I pay for. I hope this issue will be put to rest without affecting what I have a right to receive.